Foreword

At General Conference in Goshen in August, 1959, the statisticians and secretaries of our conferences and various organizations reviewed the question of accuracy of data, particularly of membership figures. Membership figures reported in the 1960 Mennonite Yearbook as well as in recent years indicate that the membership growth in the United States and Canada has slowed down considerably.

Perhaps the most important influence in this slowing down process is the more common practice of the use of the quota. Giving is to a certain extent based on quotas, and church budgets are based on quotas. The use of quotas requires more careful counting of members in our congregations and likely results in a more accurate total membership figure for the church.

Again this year, with a net increase of 1,183 members, we must ask ourselves the question, What changes are taking place that are reducing our growth even below that of holding our own children?

The 1960 Yearbook contains the directory of Mennonite Church bishops, ministers, and deacons with dates of births and ordinations. This directory is published every five years. An attempt has been made to make the list inclusive and accurate.

Our users will note a change in format to facilitate editing, correcting, and printing processes. The pages of the Yearbook are set in type actually one-and-one-half times the size you see. The pages then are photographically reduced to the present size of the Yearbook. Printing is now being done by the offset process instead of direct from type. We believe that you will find the present format more legible for reading and reference purposes.

The thumb index guide has been moved from the cover to the title page. We as editors are indebted to Joe Alderfer for the new design on the cover and title page.

We wish to take this occasion to thank sincerely all officers and others who have co-operated in contributing data for this issue of the Mennonite Yearbook. We are confident that all our readers who at first glance see only figures, names, and addresses will remember that behind these data are men and women devoted to the service of Christ and the church. Herein is another year's record, a still photograph, of an active church engaged in the task of bringing the Gospel to a confused world.

The Mennonite Church at the Beginning of 1960

By Paul Erb, Executive Secretary of Mennonite General Conference

The Mennonite Yearbook is largely limited to information about the Mennonite Church, which is the largest (84,387 members) of a number of related groups in America which use the Mennonite name. This article gives an over-all description of the Mennonite Church at the beginning of 1960.

The chart on page 6 diagrams the organizational pattern of the church. A small number of congregations are unattached to any conference. But most of the 624 organized congregations belong to one of the twenty conferences which are members, or eligible for membership, in Mennonite General Conference. Member conferences appear on the chart under the solid line. Conferences under the broken line have not yet affiliated, but are considered a part of the denomination, and are counted in the statistical data in this Yearbook.

All but one of these conferences elect representatives on the General Council, which usually meets four times in each biennium to discuss issues and to take interim action. All of the twenty conferences elect representatives on the Mennonite Publication Board, and most of them participate actively in the work of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities and the Mennonite Board of Education.

A great deal of the denominational program is carried on by these three boards. They are autonomous, i.e., not organizationally responsible to Mennonite General Conference, as the broken lines indicate. They report their work to General Conference, however, and operate within its standards. Co-ordination of the church program is secured through the General Council, on which the boards have membership, and especially through the Council's Committee on Co-ordination of Church Program. So, while the program is not centrally administered, it can be co-ordinated.

To keep the chart simple, we have not diagramed the organization of the boards, beyond showing the connection of a few subsidiaries. The chart does not show the subsidiaries of Mennonite Mutual Aid, which functions under General Conference.

Mennonite General Conference

The Mennonite General Conference maintains its headquarters office at Scottdale, Pa. Its meetings are biennial, the latest meeting having been held at Goshen, Ind., Aug. 25-27, 1959. Member conferences may send to General Conference one delegate for each 200 members. Bishops in conferences eligible for membership, but not yet affiliated, are delegates ex officio. Members of the General Council are also delegates to General Conference. Delegates attending the 1959 conference totaled 220, forty-four more than ever before.

The General Council met three times in 1959—at Chicago in April and December, and at Goshen in August, in connection with General Conference.

General Conference operates on an annual budget of $70,000, given by the constituency on a basis of $1.50 per member plus 50¢ per Sunday-school enrollee.

The organizational personnel of General Conference may be seen on page 11.

Mennonite Mutual Aid, Inc., cares for a number of economic needs within the brotherhood, such as loans, investments, financial counseling, refugee loans, guidance in colonization, community placement service, church building, property and automobile insurance, hospital aid, and widows' and survivors' rehabilitation. This business is carried on at Goshen, Ind.

Mennonite General Conference participates in the Schowalter Foundation and annually receives funds which thus far have been used for theological scholarships and the support of senior church workers. The building at Hesston, Kans., of Schowalter Villa, a facility for this latter purpose, is now being promoted.

The Mennonite Commission for Christian Education has the important responsibility of promoting Christian education on the congregational level. The emphasis in 1959 was "Christian Training for Christian Service." The 1960 emphasis is "Unity of the Spirit." The Commission is carrying on an important study of the strengths and weaknesses of the nurture of our youth. It presented to the 1959 General Conference a study of the uses of television. A home interests study conference was held at Goshen, Ind., just after the 1959 General Conference.

The fall meeting of the Commission in 1959 was held at Baden, Ont. The spring meeting in 1960 is at Scottdale, Pa., and there will be another meeting at Goshen, Ind., in August. The big meeting of the year will be a church-wide Sunday-school convention at Goshen, Aug. 4-7, 1960.

Mennonite Youth Fellowship, which functions under the Commission, held its 1959 meeting at Orrville, Ohio, in August. The 1960 meeting will be at Hesston, Kans., Aug. 18-21. The field worker who serves the Youth Fellowship is supported jointly by the Commission and Mennonite Relief and Service Committee.

The 1959 conference on Christian community relations, sponsored jointly by the Mennonite Community Association and the Committee on Economic and Social Relations, was held at Hubbard, Oreg. The 1960 meeting will be held at Croghan, N.Y., April 29 to May 1.

General Conference approved the Historical Committee's taking over the work of the Mennonite Research Foundation, and the committee has been renamed Historical and Research Committee. The Archives and Research Center now occupies quarters in the new seminary building at Goshen, and a full-time archivist and research director is employed.

The General Conference adopted significant resolutions on Surplus Food and the International Refugee Year, and on Inspiration of the Bible. It approved a basic statement on marriage, a statement on Mennonite Central Committee functions and relations, and a statement on inter-conference relations. It accepted the application of the Ontario Amish Conference for membership.

Mennonite Publication Board

The Mennonite Publication Board, one of the three autonomous church-wide boards of the Mennonite Church, held its 1959 meeting at Nappanee, Ind., in March. The 1960 meeting is at Scottdale, Pa., where the Mennonite Publishing House is located.

There are over 200 workers in the literature services of the church. Sales in 1959 totaled $1,796,000. The gross assets of our publishing business are approaching $2,000,000.

Last year saw the completion of the Mennonite Encyclopedia. The fourth and final volume was released at General Conference. This is a valuable addition to our literature.

Graded Sunday-school materials went into use on the primary level in October, 1959. The junior and intermediate materials will be ready in October, 1960. This is a major publishing accomplishment.

This year will see the launching of a new leadership magazine, Builder, designed for preachers, teachers, and all local church officers. It will replace Christian Ministry, Herald Teacher, and Program Builder.

Books and pamphlets published in 1959 include The Holy Spirit and the Holy Life, by C. K. Lehman; The New Testament, the Christian, and the State, by Archie Penner; Jesus and Human Conflict, by H. A. Fast; Through Sunlight and Shadow, by Evelyn Bauer; The Nurture and Evangelism of Children, by G. G. Yoder; The Ecumenical Movement and the Faithful Church, by J. H. Yoder; Youth Program Ideas IV, by Willard and Alice Roth; The Days of My Years, by S. C. Yoder; The Christian Woman's Head Veiling, by Richard C. Det-

Mennonite Board of Education

The Mennonite Board of Education operates and controls Goshen College, Hesston College, and Goshen College Biblical Seminary.

In 1959 a new church-chapel was completed at Goshen. 1960 should see the completion of the Seminary building at Goshen, now largely in use, and of men's dormitories at Goshen and Hesston.

Hesston College observed its fiftieth anniversary and inaugurated a new president, Tilman R. Smith.

Eastern Mennonite College, at Harrisonburg, Va., operated by the Virginia Conference, successfully conducted a $300,000 endowment campaign, and as a result achieved accreditation in the Southern Association of Colleges.

Ground was broken at Kidron, Ohio, for a Christian high school under the Ohio and Eastern Conference. It is expected to open this school in the fall of 1960.

The Board, in its annual meeting at Hesston, Oct. 21-23, 1959, took steps toward better integration of our college program. A co-ordinator is to be appointed. The burden of the Executive Committee will be eased by the appointment of a Board of Overseers for each college. The General Educational Council is replaced by semiautonomous councils, of which one will be the Higher Education Council.

Both enrollment and financial support of our colleges are increasing. Total Board of Education assets are over $4,000,000. Both Goshen and Hesston have the largest freshman classes in their history.

The Conrad Grebel lectures for 1959 were by J. D. Graber on "The Church Apostolic," a discussion of mission principles. H. S. Bender will give the 1960 lectures on the doctrine of the church.

Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities

The headquarters of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities are at Elkhart, Ind. Organizationally the Board administers its work in foreign missions, home missions, and literature evangelism through departments headed by secretaries. Three areas—Relief and Service, Mennonite Broadcasts, and Health and Welfare—are administered by committees.

Either directly or in co-operation with a district mission board, work is carried on in a score of countries through 175 workers, in more languages than were spoken at Pentecost. Sending our first missionaries to Nigeria was a forward step in 1959, and the acceptance into our fellowship of more than 60 congregations there.

The 1959 annual meeting was held at Hesston, Kans.; the 1960 meeting will be on the Christopher Dock campus at Lansdale, Pa., June 15-19.

Total mission giving for the year exceeded $3,000,000. More than a third of this is to district boards. The Eastern Board, serving the Lancaster Conference, is the chief missionary agent for one fifth of our membership, and supports missions in six foreign countries. This Board observed in 1959 its twenty-fifth anniversary of foreign work, which began in Tanganyika.

The Virginia Board has mission work in Italy and in Jamaica. The Franconia Board works in Cuba and Mexico.

Mennonite Broadcasts, a department of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities, with headquarters at Harrisonburg, Va., broadcasts in English, Spanish, Navaho, Japanese, Italian, German, French, and Russian. The total number of programs released weekly is 234. There are correspondence courses in four languages.

The Health and Welfare Committee administers five homes for the aged, seven hospitals, a children's home, and a home school for educable mentally deficient children.

The Relief and Service Committee's thrust is in three areas: participation in Mennonite Central Committee foreign relief and services, services to men in I-W service, and Voluntary Service, which has 169 workers in 28 locations.

Inter-Mennonite Activities

The Mennonite Church carries on a number of activities in co-operation with other Mennonite groups. Chief means of this co-operation is Mennonite Central Committee, with headquarters at Akron, Pa. Co-operating groups number 18. MCC carries on an extensive program of relief, now operating in some 20 foreign countries. Its Peace Section co-ordinates the peace work of the various groups, especially in government contacts. It participates in the National Service Board for Religious Objectors, which maintains an office in Washington. It helps in the resettlement of Mennonite refugees. In the United States it has led out in a mental health program. It carries out a program of voluntary service at home and abroad. Particularly effective is the Pax program of world-wide aid in lieu of military service.

Total receipts of MCC in 1959 were $2,187,763. Of this amount, $936,953 was composed of gifts in kind—donated meat and clothing, and $300,587 worth of government surplus food. The 1960 budget is $899,017, not including material aid and institutions.

Plans are being made for holding the Seventh Mennonite World Conference in Kitchener, Ont., in 1962.

The graded Sunday-school course now being prepared will be used by the Mennonite Church, the General Conference Mennonites, the Mennonite Brethren, and the Church of God in Christ, Mennonite. The Mennonite Encyclopedia was published co-operatively by the three largest Mennonite groups in America.

We co-operate with other groups in the Conference of Historic Peace Churches in Ontario, the Association of Mennonite and Affiliated Colleges, the Mennonite Research Fellowship, the Association of Mennonite Hospitals and Homes, the Association of Mennonite Aid Societies, Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminaries, and the Association of Mission Board Secretaries. Mennonite Biblical Seminary in Uruguay is inter-Mennonite, and foreign missionaries in several fields have intergroup relations. In America there have been a number of evangelistic campaigns in which the various groups co-operated.

Directions

Growth and change are seen in almost every phase of the life and work of the Mennonite Church. Outreach and wider testimony are making their contribution. But changes also bring strains and tensions. Schism and dissension are raising their heads. The church is being tested as to whether she can truly discern what is the essence of her holy call, and meet unitedly and effectively the opportunities which face her. We are in danger of losing much that we ought to keep, but also of not gaining what God has for us in the expression and proclamation of our testimony.

John L. Stauffer (1888-1959)

By Linden M. Wenger

Unique in the annals of modern legal testaments is the following bequest found in the will of John L. Stauffer: "I bequeath to my beloved children and to their families that faith in the Holy Trinity, that confidence in the full inspiration, integrity, and authority of the Holy Scriptures, and that hope in the promise of the return of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, all of which have sustained me through life as a child of God, as a father, as a minister of the Gospel, and as a bishop in the Mennonite Church." In one way or another Bro. Stauffer was instrumental in sharing this bequest of faith and hope with many besides his own family during his lifetime. Truly he possessed a gift for personal helpfulness. In dealing with seekers who came to the inquiry room, in counseling with students at Eastern Mennonite College, in home visitation, in advising pastors and others in places of responsibility, he shared generously and helpfully his own insight and confidence.

Bro. Stauffer was one of that handful of men whom God graciously gives as gifts to the church in every generation, who by faithful devotion and dedication of their talents become leaders in the whole church, defenders of the faith, and towers of strength to their brethren. Besides serving as minister and bishop in the Northern District of the Virginia Conference, Bro. Stauffer filled many positions of church-wide responsibility. From 1935 to 1950 he was president of Eastern Mennonite College (for the first two years of this period he was designated acting president). He served as moderator of General Conference for the 1947-49 biennium and was a member of the General Council from its formation until the time of his death. He served on the Publishing Committee of the Mennonite Publication Board and from time to time lent his services to various other committees and boards. Throughout the years of his ministry he was in demand from coast to coast as a preacher and Bible conference speaker.

John L. Stauffer was born at Spring City, Pa., Nov. 13, 1888, the son of Jacob and Jane (Longacre) Stauffer. He grew to manhood in the humble farm home along with his two brothers and one sister. Following his conversion he was not long in showing interest in definite Christian service. At the age of 22 he went to Altoona, Pa., to engage in mission work. His formal education ceased after a year of high school and a year of business college, but all his life he was a diligent student of the Word and became an excellent Bible teacher, an educated man, in his own right.

On Aug. 3, 1910, he married Lydia Kolb. Shortly afterward they took up residence in Altoona where they spent the next seven years in city mission work. He was ordained to the ministry in 1911. His preaching and Bible teaching talents were soon recognized far beyond the confines of his mission parish. Also, while at Altoona he became interested in the use of tracts and pamphlets for the spread of the Gospel and defense of the truth. While there he bought a printing press which he used somewhat as a source of income but primarily to enable him to print Gospel tracts. This medium he used effectively until the end of his life. In Virginia, by arrangement with local printers, he published under the name of Tract Press, and distributed tracts by the thousands in the homeland and abroad.

In 1918 Bro. Stauffer moved with his family to Harrisonburg, Va., where he became a teacher of Bible at the then Eastern Mennonite School. Here he served, first as teacher, then as president of the college, and after his retirement from that office he was associated with the Bible department almost to the end of his life. Hundreds of students remember him for his classroom presentation and his helpful personal counsel. Under his enthusiastic presentation the Bible first became meaningful for many of them.

In Virginia Bro. Stauffer associated himself with the Northern District. He brought the same earnestness and ability to his preaching in the schoolhouses and churches of the Highlands as he had exhibited in city mission work. Many lives were blessed by his ministry. In 1934 he was ordained bishop in the Northern District. During most of the years that followed, he shared this office with other able men; however, he was the acknowledged leader of the district until the time of his death. His activities were not limited to his home district. He served as moderator of the Virginia Conference from 1932 until 1940. Many hours of his time were given to various committees and boards of his home conference. Always his voice was heard with respect in its councils.

Life in his own home was marked by the same orderliness and earnestness that characterized his public life. He certainly fulfilled that qualification of the bishop which asks that he rule his own house well. Three sons and two daughters were born to John and Lydia Stauffer. Of the sons, the eldest, Paul, died in early manhood; Mark is head of the music department at E.M.C.; James serves the church as missionary in Vietnam. Daughters Lois (Mrs. Robert Messner) and Ruth (Mrs. Robert Alger) live in the home community. Under the father's guidance the family kept faithfully its periods of worship and devotion, learned frugality that found something to give even from the limited financial reimbursement that church and school work brought to the family purse, and practiced comradeship in sharing worth-while tasks. But above all, he taught the pre-eminence of spiritual values and heavenly treasures. It required little of material goods to make him content.

Bro. Stauffer had a capacity for hard work. In earlier life he habitually remained in his study late at night while others slept. He was continually occupied in meditation and thought, a characteristic which made him seem a bit retiring and often caused people to feel that he was a person with whom it was hard to become acquainted. But those who learned to know him intimately found him a pleasant and stimulating companion.

In following a life of strenuous activity Bro. Stauffer learned the value of a bit of relaxation. He was rather adept with his rod and reel and a good marksman at bringing down small game. He loved a day out of doors and frequently invited some fellow faculty member or minister to spend a few hours with him in the fields or along a favorite trout stream.

Bro. Stauffer was permitted to be active until the very end of his life. On the weekend before his home-going he served as Bible conference speaker in Juniata County, Pennsylvania, preaching his final sermon from Titus 2:11-14. For a few days during the following week he was not feeling well and was under a doctor's care. His death on Saturday, Aug. 15, was an unexpected shock to the community and the church. His funeral at the College Chapel on Aug. 18 was largely attended, with representatives of many church agencies coming to pay their respect to a man who had been a leader among them. The services were in charge of J. R. Mumaw, President of the college, and J. Ward Shank, who served with Bro. Stauffer as bishop in the Northern District. His body was laid to rest in the Lindale Cemetery facing gently to the rising sun. In his funeral sermon Bro. Shank quoted the words which Edwin Markham applied to Abraham Lincoln and many were impressed just how aptly they fitted Bro. Stauffer.

He held his place—
Held the long purpose like a growing tree—
Held on through blame and faltered not at praise.
And when he fell in whirlwind, he went down
As when a lordly cedar, green with boughs,
Goes down with a great shout upon the hills,
And leaves a lonesome place against the sky.

Since his passing many fine and well-deserved tributes have been paid to the life and service of Bro. Stauffer. Particularly apt was the Gospel Herald editorial describing him as valiant and gentle. He was wholeheartedly committed to the defense of the truth as he knew it and he stood for it irrespective of the opinions of others. But he was never forward or overbearing. His manner was quiet and kind; he sought to lead men, not to drive them. He has been described as the preacher's preacher, a staunch defender of the conservative faith, one who inspired confidence, one who knew what he believed. All these things describe Bro. Stauffer in some measure. He was truly able to teach and to counsel those who were pastors. Those of us who labored with him as younger pastors treasure the strength we gained from his assured and confident handling of difficult problems which came to our councils. In his defense of those things which seemed to be right, he sometimes met opposition. Someone has remarked that although many disagreed with him, yet all respected him. The manner in which he defended the faith in his generation stands as a challenge to those who must take up the torch which he has laid down.

Henry E. Lutz (1891-1959)

By Ira D. Landis

Henry E. Lutz was born Aug. 4, 1891, on the late Joseph Risser farm, of Rheems, Pa., the son of Deacon Abram B. Lutz and Anna Erb Lutz. He was a grandson of Preacher John Erb (1850-1913), a son of Nicholas Erb of Cumberland County. He first married Ruth N. Nissley (1895-1953), a daughter of Abram L. and Annie N. Nissley. They started housekeeping on the Donegal Road, Mt. Joy, Pa., with Ruth's parents. He never lived outside of Mt. Joy Township. This union was blessed with four children, three surviving: Florence N. Miller; Anna N. Lutz, R.N.; and John Henry Lutz.

On Jan. 30, 1910, when John W. Hess, then of Missouri, preached on Isa. 38:1 at Kraybill's, his father wrote, "Henry came out." On April 23, 1910, Jacob N. Brubacher baptized him at Mt. Joy in a class of six. He became active in Sunday-school work in this outpost of Kraybill's. After the early death of Peter R. Nissley, he was ordained from a class of seven on March 16, 1922, by John G. Ebersole to serve in the Kraybill-Mt. Joy District.

On March 6, 1930, at Landisville, Noah L. Landis ordained him bishop for the Landisville-Erisman District. In the district then were twenty-two ordained for 1,930 members. He served with Isaac H. Brubaker until his death, Sept. 2, 1933, when he assumed full charge. He was the twelfth member of the Bishop Board, only Noah W. Risser surviving.

By 1930, he began evangelistic work at Ephrata, serving in the next seven years at Manheim, Hammer Creek, Millersville, Rohrerstown, Bossler's (two times), Landis Valley, River Corner, Stauffer, and Paradise. The most outstanding was at Paradise in January, 1931, when fifty-five confessed and seventy-three were received.

He served as short-term instructor at E.M.S. during the mid-thirties and on the faculty of the Ephrata Bible School at its start in 1939. He was appointed to the Examining Committee of the Mission Board in 1939 in place of John H. Mosemann. In 1938 he served with Henry F. Garber on the first deputation to Tanganyika. At Busia in Tanganyika he became seriously ill with malignant malaria.

When he saw the need of bishop assistance, he divided the district and ordained Homer D. Bomberger on Feb. 23, 1943, as assistant. However, he served as senior bishop until his death. The present total membership of the district is 2,085.

He became assistant secretary of the Bishop Board in 1935, and succeeding John H. Mosemann as secretary in 1938, he served until 1949. The following year he became the eighteenth moderator of Lancaster Conference and thus became ex-officio member on various subcommittees of conference. He succeeded W. W. Graybill and served until his death. It was here that he had the greatest molding influences of his life. The Discipline was revised and nearly every phase of church work was enlarged during this decade. His own bishop district reached to York's Corners, West Union, and Bath, New York.

The first of several articles appeared in the Gospel Herald in 1927 on "Separation from the World."

He conducted numerous anointings, the early ones including Lottie Snyder, Henry W. Frank, Isaac H. Brubaker, and Amos L. Hess. He performed 431 wedding ceremonies. He preached most of the funerals of members in his district for many years. He ordained all of the ministry in the Landisville Bishop District since 1930 and of the Erisman District prior to 1940. He served on the Kraybill School Board and the Philhaven Hospital Board until his death.

On Aug. 4, 1955, Elizabeth Nissley (born Oct. 17, 1900), daughter of Henry B. Harnish and Magdalena L. Herr, entered his life to sweeten and lighten his latter days. His last work in General Conference circles was to bear testimony to Paul Erb's sermon at Goshen in August. He was active to the last, having started a series of meetings at Beaver Run, where he suffered a stroke in the pulpit on Sunday evening, Nov. 15. The following two weeks he dismissed all church work. Then on Nov. 28, he became seriously ill again. He was taken to the Lancaster General Hospital, where on Dec. 2, he answered the last call of the Master to come for his reward. On the Sunday following, one of the largest concourses of people ever to attend a service in the Mt. Joy meetinghouse, assembled to mark the home-going of their much-lamented leader. Thus, following in the faith and footsteps of Jacob N. Brubacher, both as bishop and moderator of conference, another died "in the togs" and was buried in Kraybill's Cemetery, with another generation left to carry on.

MENNONITE AUTOMOBILE AID, INC.

Sept. 28, 1959

Registration: 3,100 Vehicles

Claims Paid: $62,854.68

Assessment: The assessment rate for the last six months was 11¢ per $100.00 evaluation per month based on NADA average delivered price of vehicle when new. For example, a new standard Chevrolet or Ford would be $25.00 to $30.00 per year. More valuable vehicles or less valuable vehicles would vary accordingly.

Classification of Drivers: (1) A double assessment rate on automobiles where the owner or principal operator is an unmarried male under the age of 25. (2) A one and one-half assessment rate is levied on married males under 25 and parents having unmarried male drivers under 25 which male drivers do less than one half of the driving of the enrolled automobiles. (3) A single assessment rate on all other drivers. (4) On trucks and other vehicles a multiple assessment may be levied depending on type, distance hauled, or use of vehicle. Write to secretary for more details.

Benefit: Normal collision and comprehensive coverage with a $35.00 deductible. This does not include public liability or property damage.

Please Note: Mennonite Automobile Aid is a witness in sharing automobile losses and making adjustments in keeping with Christian principles without resorting to courts of law either in the name of the company or in the name of the member (subrogation).
